Read to Succeed

Read-to-Succeed begins today! The materials you will need were sent home with your child. Please read the instructions, and fill in the Student Reading Log with the required information. If you need more room, just add blank sheets of paper. Once the six hours of reading is completed, return the log to school. It must be turned in by Tuesday, February 21st at the latest!

For those younger students unable to read themselves, parents, brothers, sisters, etc. may read to them. This is the time when you, as parents, get to show your child the importance of reading. Keep track of the hours read and what material is read on the student tally sheet attached to the instructions. Any type of reading material may be used: books, cartoons, magazines, etc. If you have any questions, please call Mrs. Cowie at school and leave a message. She will call you back.

This program runs for three weeks; January 27 through February 19. Let's get reading!
